IMPORTANT ARREST. -We learn from the Evansville Journal that Capt. Hornbrook, of the 65th Indiana, arrested Col. Jack Thompson a few days ago, in the vicinity of Owensboro. Thompson was one of the first to enter the rebel rervice, and left Owensboro as Captain of the Dixie Guards, either the first or second company that was raised in Kentucky for the rebel army. He is very outspoken in his treason, and glories in what he has already done against the Federal government. It is said there were a number of secesh ladies should the boat the Little Grey Eagle, on which he was taken to Henderson, who made quite a lion of Thompson.

A guerilla named Smith was also arrested by Capt. Hornbrook's command and taken to Henderson on Sunday.

The gratifying success of the concert at Masonic Temple on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Methodist Church in Portland, is attributable in a great measure to the energy, taste, and artistic skill of Mr. E. Z. Webster, under whose superintendence the entertainment was given. The solos contributed by Mr. Whipple and lady were given with charming effect; and the choruses, which were admirable selections from the most popular operas and oratorios, were sung in excellent harmony, and with great correctness and variety xpression, which effects were much heightby the admirable accompaniments rendered by an accomplished young lady ama-

DEPUTATION OF REBELS' WIVES .- General Burnside has issued an order explaining that the intention of that portion of his General Orders, relative to the "removal of wives and families of persons in arms against the United States," being merely to remove from the Department those persons who, from their intimate relations with the enemies of the Government, would be presumed to exercise an active sympathy with the rebellion, and would therefore be dangerous as residents, and as arbitrary arrests, or notices to remove, might occasion suffering and injustice, it is ordered that in all such cases the proper officers having cognizance of the facts will forward to these headquarters a written statement of the circumstances before he takes any further action.

As the experience of the Department has shown that cases exist where the persons to whom General Order No. 66 refers are, notwhom General Order No. 66 refers are notwithstanding their close relationship to the enemies of the country, still loyal to the Government, and are willing to testify it by takthere is evidence of the honesty of the intention of the parties in taking the oath, will not

PREVENTION OF FORGED BANK NOTES .- A new idea to prevent the forgery of bank notes has been started, which consists in using a single sheet formed of several layers of pulp, superposed, of different nature of colors, according to requirements. The check it gives to alterations of documents is excellent. It only requires that the middle layer be colored of a deliable or destructible color. The chemical acid employed in obliterating the writing will also destroy this color, which cannot again be restored while the paper surface remains white.

We learn from the St. Louis News that some parts of Missouri are laboring under the blighting influence of a drouth that has prevailed throughout nearly the whole spring. In some counties there has been no rain of consequence for more than two months. The corn first planted is withering or rotting in the ground from lack of moisture, and it is useless to replant or to finish planting while the fields continue in their present parched conditition.

The young tobacco plants are nearly destroyed. They cannot be transplanted without rain, and if the drouth continues a week of the fields continues a week of the fields continues as the fields that there were gentlemen motoring which as diducted the fields of the continues and field the diduction of the continues as a field as the fields of the continues as were gout the sentinely and the fields and the fields of the out rain, and if the drouth continues a week or two longer they will be unfit for use. Insurrection in Hayti. - On the 6th May

FELLOW CITIZENS: I was announced in March as a candidate for re-election to Congress. At Falmouth, on the 4th inst., I declared that my name would not be submitted to the convention, which had been proposed for the 3d of June at Covington. I have taken other steps to make known to the people my determination not to be subject to that con-vention. I thought it better not to give the reasons which actuated me to this course, be-fore the day appointed for this convention. I am of a different opinion at this time, and think that I ought to give some explanation in this address.

After I had myself announced as a candi-

After I had myself announced as a candidate, I omitted no opportunity to ascertain the feeling of the Union people of the District. Before the announcement, I had been encouraged by many gentlemen to stand for re-election. Afterward, I became convinced that the people of the District with whom I concurred in political sentiment were in favor of my renition as prisoners of war. Beaty returned the compliment by shooting him.

About the same time, a squad of rebel horse thieves and guerillas, of the Champ Ferguson stripe, under the lead of Capt. Evans, who had been robbing Union men in Wayne county, Ky., and taking some of them prisoners, were attacked by an inferior force at night successfully. This force acquisited of two citizens. I believe that the movement for a convention is made by those who condemn my general course as a Representative in the last Congress, and desire in the next a Representative of a different political complexion. In do not complain of their motive and desire, but I differ with them, and claim for my political friends the same right which I recognize in them, and would not take from them. A large number of the gentlemen, and I think the most of them, who desire a convention candidate, were delegates to the State Convention at Louisville. But all of the delegates from this District to that convention convention at Louisville. But all of the delegates from this District to that convention are not, in the present movement, for a convention in the District. The District delegation at Louisville appointed a member of the committee which reported the platform of the State Convention. After the platform was reported and adopted, the committee-man for this District seried to have and did have an

Here is the resolution from which the dissent was made:

Some delegates from this district did not participate in the dissent made by Mr. Benton; some did not know of it. I am not able to give the number of those who instructed him to "dissent from the majority" of the commit-tee "in reference to the first resolution report-ed." But I believe that those who gave Mr. Benton the instruction are getting up the Cov-ington Convention, and those who did not concur in the "dissent" are not favoring the convention. Right here in this connection, the repulse may like to see the full meaning of

When there is one, there may be great significance in something obviously omitted, but a protest against something expressed in a platform is very significant. I have reason for saying that the distasteful resolutions in the Legislative series are the 1st, 3d, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th and 10th. Some engaged in calling the Covington Convention will hesitate to support the State ticket if they hear the candidates advocate these resolutions. The people have an important lesson to learn, and may suffering enable them to learn it thoroughly, may it quicken the brain and sharpen their perceptions so that they may speedily be enabled to distinguish between political selfishness and true patriot-ism—to understand that in the Constitution is law and order, security for life and property, and all the honest industrial pursuits that pro-duces happiness and builds up a nation; but that to wander beyond its bounds is to tresadopt them as their practice, then will the signs of the times look propitious—then will the sun of peace begin to shine, and the people

FOR CONGRESS. ROBERT MALLORY,

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1863.

The address of the Hon. John W. Menzies which we publish to-day will especially attract the attention of his constituents. Mr. Menzies is as we undergress, side by side with Crittenden and Mallory and Wadsworth and Harding and Grider, all of whom will be again returned to Conthat he will be by his.

Whilst rejoicing at Gen. Grant's sucbut feel great anxiety and some apprehension on his account. It appears that the rebel military authorities, fully aware of the immense importance of the position he wrested from them, were, at the last dates, concentrating their whole available force, their army at Vicksburg, large portions of their forces in Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Alabama, and probably several divisions of their great host in Tennessee, to retake it. The rebel troops, driven out of Jackson, were receiving heavy reinforcements from all directions every day, and Vicksburg was reported as having been evacuated to increase the rebel myriads.

Unfortunately there was no source from which Grant could draw reinforcements. There was nothing for him to do but to strengthen his position as much as possible by hasty fortifications and await the shock. If he has sustained himself, as we trust he has, the sea. the loyal heart of the nation will rejoice with joy unspeakable.

gislature of New York, in proof of the essen- in all our struggles against treason at home tial identity of the position of the Northern and defamation abroad, for the following re-Democracy with that of the Union party of | newed assurance of the generous and candid Kentucky, we were not aware of what is in | manner in which it espouses our cause and this relation the most significant feature of the address; namely, the express adoption of the platform of the Union party of Kentucky. Yet such is the fact. "The Albany Argus of yesterday," says the New York World of Thursday last, "republishes the Democratic legislative address, and subjoins to it the reslutions adopted by the Democratic members at the same time with the address, but which, by some oversight, have not before been published. The omission was not, however, very strongly felt, inasmuch as the resolutions are identical with those adopted by the Legislature of members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania." We republish in the Journal of this morning the resolutions as appended to the New York address. It will be seen, that, mutatis mutandis, they are indeed all but a literal copy of the resolutions adopted by our General Assem-

Thus, as it appears, the platform of the Union party of Kentucky has been adopted expressly by the Democratic members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, which in the confusion of the time had escaped our attention, and also by the Democratic members of the Legislature of New York. This fact puts beyond the reach of cavil a question that before was undisputed and indisputable. There is in Kentucky but one party which is in harmony with the Democracy of the North; and that party is the Union party. Nay, not merely is the Union party of Kentucky in harmony with the Democracy of the North, but the Democracy of the North, with a wise and generous regard to the political as well as geographical centrality of our position, expressly accepts as its own the platform of the Union party of Kentucky. The Democracy of the North rallies under the banner unfurled by the Union party of Kentucky. The significance of this fact defies misconception. And certainly the significance is most cheering to

THE QUESTION OF ENDURANCE.—The following paragraph is from an editorial article in the Raleigh (N. C.) Progress of the 13th inst., a rebel paper of high position and much in-

The great number of the enemy's forces and the multitude of their shipping make it easy for them to carry on simultaneously all these operations, and they do not care for delay, for it is our people who are suffering, not theirs.
The longer this style of warfare lasts the greater will be the mass of plunder carried north, the more of our mills, machine shops, and railroads they will have destroyed, the more of our national resources they will have ruined and wasted, and the better chance they will have for an irresistible advance at last.

They are in no hurry. Last year indeed there was urgent haste to get the rebellion crushed in thirty days or in ninety. Now we hear much less of that vehement urgency; and the whole Yankee nation seems to have laid out its accounts for war as the settled business of life, rather than consent to peace and separa-tion. They are perfectly willing to fight upon the present system for twenty years or forty. They are willing during all that time to go on submitting to such defeats as they have sustained at Fredericks-burg and on the Rappahannock, because by these defeats they lose not a foot of ground—they leave not have been not because they leave they have been such as foot of ground—they leave nothing but well as they leave they have been such as they leave they lose nothing but men, and men are of less value to them than to us. One thousand gallant Southern lives lost to us are ill balanced by the killing of five thousand of their base hirelings. Jackson alone is a dearer loss to us than Hooker and his whole one hundred and fifty thousand would be to them, and they speculate that it may be Lee's turn fiext, or Longstreet's, and that at any rate they are killing us slowly off, and they are, in the meantime, stealing much and ruining more, and their women and children are safe at home, many of them dressed better than ever before in the spoils of our homes, while Confederate women and children are routed out of house and home and chased like wild beasts. In short, if we can endure this war for the next half century they can, and they will wish us joy of our victories and our glory. We urge nothing, suggest nothing, hint nothing—only state the facts. Such is the policy of the enemy—such is his calculations—such is his interest and intent.

Taking no account of the writer's bitterness, we fully agree with him as to the Federal power of endurance in this war. It is of course extremely desirable to the people and the Government of the United States to put an end to the rebellion as soon as possible, but, be the time long or short, they can and will fight on till the work shall be accomplished. If five years are found necessary, they will fight five years; if ten, ten; if twenty, twenty. Time is important, but final success is im-

The Southern ports are blockaded, the Southern railroads are about worn out, Southern labor, white and black, is almost atterly broken up, Southern regions are ravaged by the progress of loyal and disloyal armies as by the consumings of fire, Southern money has become a fiction, Southern necessaries of life are held at prices without parallel in the history of either civilization or barbarism. and Southern resources in men to supply the immense army-losses by battle and pestilence and fatigue and want have been wholly exhausted by rigorous and all-embracing conscriptions, while, in the loyal States, commerce is as free as the breeze, labor receives its rich reward, no hostile force sets its blighting foot upon the fields, the currency is sound and plentiful, all the means of living in comfort are within the means of the whole population, and there are probably two millions of men who can be added to the armies at the discretion of the Federal Government. The extraordinary contrast shows the blank hopeless-

And the struggle must be kept up till the mighty object is accomplished, be the cost in blood and coin what it may. The North Carolina Editor concludes his gloomy statement with saying, "we urge nothing, suggest nothing, hint nothing-only state the facts." Crittenden, the gift to us of an age of great men, will come back, not, as a New York radical paper expressed it, to renew "the snivel and slaver over the Union," but to do battle earnestly and faithfully for the principles of Union he léarned from his illustrious predecessors, and which No men have been more abused by the radi-Kentucky, and reaffirmed by the Democratic cal party than those patriotic Union mer members of the Legislature of Pennsylvania." of Kentucky. It has at times been only too manifest that the disunionists of the North the abolition clique, desired to force Kentucky into alliance with the enemy, in order that she might be included with the Southern States in a slaveholding confederacy. Guided by the doctrine, "no union with slaveholders," these enemies of their country among us in the Northern States would have recklessly and criminally classed such men as Crittenden in the Northern robots and would classed such men as Crittenden. with the Southern rebels, and would gladly with the Southern revers, and would glady have seen him go over to their ranks. But they failed to appreciate the true patriotism of Kentucky and the Kentuckians. They are faithful beyond all the feeble conceptions of the abolitionist. They never devised disunion plans in the interest of either anti-slavery or slavery. They have always been for the Union, and they deserve, as they receive, honor and respect from all good citizens and true

If Kentucky ever disappoints the expectations of such confiding friends, or forgets what is due to her historic renown so brightly reflected on every page of the career of Henry Clay, she must first have her public archives destroyed, her state seal broken, her sons prone in the dust beneath the feet of an insolent despotism, and the memories of all the past obliterated. If ever she goes into a Southern Confederacy, it will be as a crippled, lifeless, worthless, abject, craven imbecile, that has lost all recollection of the glorious past, and ceased to entertain any aspirations for a more glorious future to our united country. She may be subjugated and dishonored, but never willingly will she consent to the degradation of aiding in the demolition of the glorious government which our fathers carved out with their swords, or the destruction of the Constitution which, aided by the reflected lights of heavenly wisdom, they gave to secure a more perfect union for their posterity. Kentucky may go into the Southern Confederacy, enforced as is a lunatic to an asylum, but if you ask her in her sane moments when she will consent to a dissolution of the Union, the response will come, swelling and defiant from the grave of her mightiest dead, "Never! NEVER! NEVER!"

The radical of the Detroit Tribune talks about our "whiffling course." When, how, and upon what subject have we whiffled? Have we done any whiffling in regard to the emancipation proclamation? Do we not occupy in respect to that measure the exact position which we have occupied from the first and which the President himself strongly occupied for months? Are we to be denounced as whifflers because we don't whiffle just as the President whiffles?

A rather smart Indiana woman, writing from this city to the Indianapolis Journal, describes Gen. Boyle as very gruff, and expresses the hope that he won't look at her "mug of milk," We suppose the delicate creature means her bosom. We presume the General will take her entreaty in the spirit in which it is offered.

The tendency of history, under identical conditions, to repeat itself, is somewhat curious.—N. Y. Tribune. Yes, the tendency of like causes to produce like effects is rather unusual. The Tribune is an original observer.

LEA & PERRINS CELEBRATED WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, PRONOUNCED BY EXTRACT

of a Letter from a Connoisseurs Medical Gentleman TO BE THE TO HIS BROTHER "Only Good Sauce," "Tell LEA & PERand applicable to EVERY VARIETY palatable as well as the most wholesome SAUCESthat is made." The above SAUCE is not only the BEST and most POPULAR CONDIMENT known, but the most econo as a few drops in Soup, Gravy, or with Fish, hot and cold Joints, Beef Steak, Game, &c., impart an exquisite zest, which unprincipled Sauce manufacturers have in vain endeavored to imitate,

On the Breakfast, Luncheon, Dinner, or Supper Table
a cruet containing "LEA & PERRINS" WORCES-TERSHIRE SAUCE" is indispensable.

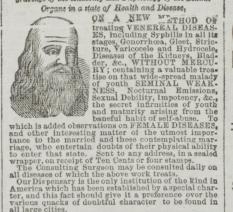

To appreciate the excellent qualities of this delicious preparation it is only necessary to purchase a small bottle of the genuine, of a respectable grocer or dealer, as many Hotel and Bestaurant proprietors seldom place the Pure Sauce before their guests, but substitute a genuine bottle filled with a squerious mixture.

FAMILY OF NEGROES FOR SALE

DR. LUDLUM'S SPECIFIC, FOR THE CURE OF Generrhoa, Gleets, Whites, Strictures, AND

COMPLAINTS OF THE ORGANS

OF GENERATION.

THE GONORRHEA, OR COMMONLY CALLED Clap, is a disgusting malady, and is too well known to require any explanation; it is easy to be got, but it is difficult to get clear of. It is a companion that few admire; it pervades all classes of societyboth male and female, both rich and poor, both mar-ried and single. Although so troublesome in itself, so distressing and sometimes fatal, it is a disease the so distressing and sometimes fatal, it is a disease the treatment of which has generally been worse than the disease itself. The common fashionable treatment is, first, to deprive you of all business; then comes a course of starvation—living on bread and tea, water gruel, or some kind of slops; you must then be bled, cupped, or leeched, combined with nauseating medicines, injections, lotions, ointments, and warm for mentations. Every few days the medicines are changed; and after some months' treatment in this way, which the patient bears with great fortitude for fear of exposure he is discharged, or discharges himself, with an irritable urctor, a swelled testicle, an enlargement of the prostrate gland, or a disease of the neck of the bladder. This Specific, which acts like a charm, with a few-doses on those diseases, and is quite pleasant to take, and which has cured thousands in New York, Phila-delphia, Baltimore, and many of the Southern cities, is a certain and effectual remedy, that makes a rapid nd permanent cure, without regard to diet, drink, or exercise, except wrestling, jumping, or overstraining. This remedy is unequalled by anything yet discovered for the cure of those diseases. It is extracted from our own plants and is perfectly safe, as it is purely vegetable. It contains no mercury, so that you can expose yourself to all kinds of weather, without the least danger from the medicine. And if you are careful in wrapping up the paste, you will have no taste or smell from it, so that you are not deprived from going into company, or being detected by your nearest friends,

This is no quack medicine, but a remedy discovered and used by a regular physician, and is confidently recommended to the unfortunate.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC MASS CONVENTION AT INDIANAPOLIS .- We learn from the New Albany Ledger that there were from twenty-five to thirty thousand of the citizens of Indiana at the Democratic State Convention at Indiapapolis yesterday. It was the largest assemblage ever convened in Indiana. Every ection of the State was fully represented The people, men, and women came in wagons, the cars, on horseback, and on foot. The greatest enthusiasm and the best of feeling prevailed. The people are in earnest, determined to maintain the Constitution and preerve the Union. No expression of sympathy for rebels North or South is heard.

The convention was organized by the appointment of Hon. D. W. Voorhees, of Vigo, as President; Hon. Robert A. Lowry, of Elkhart, Vice-President, and James H. Vawter, of Jennings, and S. R. Hamill, of Sullivan, Secretaries Resolutions were adopted amid great enthusiasm in opposition to the war measures of the Administration, in opposition to arbitrary arrests and to any infringement of the rights of the people by the military, and in favor of a restoration of the Union on the basis of the Crittenden resolutions. The speakers who have addressed the convention thus far are proposed amendment to the constitution Merrick; of Illinois. The speeches of both gentlemen were very emphatic.

The Kentucky Tribune, published at Danville, Ky., now has Mr. Jas. R. Of one hundred and sixteen rebel prisoners that were in Philadelphia last Friday. one hundred and twelve took the oath of allegiance to the United States government and were released. The other four were sent to Fort Delaware. One can scarcely wonder, says the Philadelphia Bulletin, that men who have served in the Southern army should, on passing through a Northern city and witnessing the prosperity and abundance that prevail, be anxious to remain there rather than to go back to the despotism and misery to which they have been subjected. We venture to say that they would nearly all prefer to remain here and support once more the old flag, but for the ties of kindred and the social and business relations that draw them to the South. These are usually imperative in similar cases, and it is a strong proof of the wretchedness in Davis's dominions that one hundred and twelve, out of one hundred and sixteen men, should have been able fo forego such ties and stay in the North, where they must remain, separated from their homes and families, until the war is over. When the return to allegiance is made in good faith, and when the penitents prove themselves to be worthy men, they should be received among us kindly. It is not the fault of such men that the rebellion Meesrs. Voorhees, of Indiana, and Hon. R. T. exists. The politicians did the vile work; the soldiers were either deluded or forced into the ranks of the enemies of the government. There is work for all honest and industrious men in the Northern cities, and these penitent rebels that are there are entitled to their share of it.

The newspaper correspondents who were reported some days ago as having been lost in attempting to run the Vicksburg batteries, have all turned up at last, most of them safely with Grant's army, not having been on the demolished tug-boat at all, but three of them as prisoners, A. INGENUITY OF A REPORTER .- During the reent trial at Joliet, Illinois, of the Rev. Mr. Hager, of Chicago, for alleged immoral pracices, the Bishop presiding in the court forbade the publication of the testimony. But the Chicago Tribune got it somehow, and published it regularly, to the exceeding annoyance of the court. Since Mr. Hager's ac quittal, the Tribune has revealed the "leak," and an amusing revelation it is. It says: The investigation was held in the second story of a stone building, in a room used by the Common Council. The lower story is occupied by the Fire Department, and the room directly beneath the Inquisition Chamber contains the wagons and apparatus of the Hook and Ladder Company, also an old hand fire engine, named "Eagle." By the introduction of the large suction hose into the chim-y flue (in the lower room), which receives he pipe from the immense sheet iron stove in the court room above, we were enabled to bear most that was said in the court room with wonderful distinctness. The time is approaching when it will be nec-ssary for the voters of the First Legislative District of the city to choose a representative in the General Assembly from that district. Ever an important one, the position has become one of greater importance than ever before. The loyal residents of the district cannot too sensibly feel the importance of the subject, and should at once address themselves to the de cate task of making a proper selection. Of those spoken of in that connection, I know of no one better fitted to represent the district than M. A. Downing, Esq., the late Alderman from the Tenth Ward. He was regarded, while in the councils of the city, as one of the most active and efficient members of either board; his ideas of progress and improvement were never at fault, and his theories were ever found to result to the practical advantage not only of his own section, but to the benefit of the public. No one is more familiar than Mr. Downing with the wishes of the community in which he re sides, and none would be more earnestly faith ful to a public trust. In politics he reflects the almost unanimous sentiments of the patriotic citizens of the district, as his loyalty is unquestioned and his devotion to the great leading principles of the Government well known.

NASHVILLE ITEMS. - Geo. W. Drum, a citizen, was shot by the provost guard on Friday Differences in Regard to Conscripnight last. Drum had assaulted a citizen named George L. Grange, and attempted to rob him, when the guard came up and arrested both. They were taking them to the Capitol, when Drum broke away and ran down High street. The guard challenged him to "Halt" three times, and he not obeying the order was fired upon. The ball passed through his knee, shattering the bone, and his leg will probably have to be amputated.

It is rumored that Mr. John Hows, the assessor for the Fourteenth District, which lies on Harpeth River, western border of the county, had the bad luck to be captured by the rebels while in the discharge of his duties. FINDING IN VALLANDIGHAM'S CASE-GEN. BURNSIDE'S ORDER. HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE OHIO, }

Cincinnati, O., May 16, 1863.

General Orders No. 68.

I. At a military commission, which convened at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 6th day of May, 1863, pursuant to Special Orders No. 135, of April 21, 1863, current series, from these headquarters, and of which Brigadier-General Robert B. Potter II S. Vols is President Robert B. Potter, U. S. Vols., is President, was arraigned and tried, Clement L. Vallan-digham, a citizen of the State of Ohio, on the ollowing charge and specification of charge, to wit:

Charge—Publicly expressing, in violation of General Orders No. 38, from Headquarters Department of the Ohio, sympathy for those in arms against the government of the United States, and declaring disloyal sentiments and opinions, with the object and purpose of weakening the power of the government in its efforts to suppress an unlawful rehaliton.

forts to suppress an unlawful rebellion.

Specification—In this, that the said Clement
Vallandigham, a citizen of the State of Ohio, on or about the 1st day of May, 1863, at Mt. Vernon, Knox county, Ohio, did publicly address a large meeting of citizens, and did utter sentiments in words, or in effect, as follows: Declaring the present war "a wicked, cruel, and unnecessary war;" "a war not being waged for the preservation of the Union;" "a war for the purpose of crushing this purpose of crushing and this transfer and continue deposition." "a out liberty and erecting a despotism;" "a war for the freedom of the blacks and the enslave-ment of the whites;" stating that "if the Administration had so wished, the war could have been honorably terminated months ago;"
that "peace might have been honorably obtained by listening to the proposed intermediation of France;" that "propositions by which the Northern States could be won back, and the South guaranteed their rights under the Constitution, had been rejected the day before the late battle of Fredericksburg, by Lincoln and his minions," meaning thereby the President of the United States and those under him in authority: charging that "the under him in authority; charging that "the Government of the United States were about to appoint Military Marshals in every district to restrain the people of their liberties, to deprive them of their rights and privileges;"

Headquarters Department of Ohio, as a base usurpation of arbitrary authority," inviting his hearers to resist the same, by saying, "the sooner the people inform the minions of usurped power that they will not submit to such restrictions upon their liberties the better;" de-claring that "he was at all times and upon all ions resolved to do what he could to de a monarchy upon the ruins of our free Gov. ernment;" asserting that "he firmly believed, as he said six months ago, that the men in power are attempting to establish a despotism in this country more cruel and more oppressive than ever existed before." All of which opinions and sentiments he well knew did aid comfort, and encourage those in arms against the Government, and could but induce in his hearers a distrust of their own Government, sympathy for those in arms against it, and a disposition to resist the laws of the land. isposition to resist the laws of the land.

To which charges and specifications the risoner refusing to plead either "guilty," or not guilty," the Commission directed the

And the Commission do therefore sentence him, the said Clement L. Vallandigham, a cit-izen of the State of Ohio, to be placed in close onfinement in some fortress of the United States, to be designated by the commanding officer of this Department, there to be kept during the continuance of the war. II. The proceedings, finding, and sentence in the foregoing case are approved and confirmed, and it is directed that the place of confirmed, and it is directed that the place of confinement of the prisoner, Clement L. Vallandigham, in accordance with said sentence, be Fort Warren, Boston Harbor.

By command of Major-General Burnside.

LEWIS RICHMOND,

Assistant Adjutant-General. RE-ENLISTMENTS .- The New York Journal of Commerce says the liberal terms offered be the Government for the re-enlistment of vo unteers will win unanimous public approval. It is not too much to say that one soldier who has become toughened to the exposures and privations of camp life, and has overcome, by experience, the aversion which the natural man feels to the whizzing of bullets and the screaming of rifle shots, is worth ten raw re-cruits, such as would be obtained in the gen-eral haul of a conscription. Of those who would be drafted, at least one half would have no aptitude for fighting, and would be good for nothing without a year or two of patient drilling; and a large proportion would sink under the labors which they would suddenly be called upon to perform, and, after a brief period of uselessness, would wind up their inglorious career in some Government hospital. It is only those who volunteer, who go to the war because they are moved by netural impulses to do it. they are moved by natural impulses to do it, that are healthy and serviceable. In postpon-ing the draft, and offering handsome premiums the re-enlistment of discharged soldiers, the Government indicates its preference for volunteers over conscripts. The inducements offered by the Government may be summed up as follows: One month's pay will be given in advance, and $25 after the soldier is muster-ed into service. A bounty of $75 is due to the soldier or his representatives at the close of the war, or after an honorable discharge. Reg-iments of volunteers returning home will be allowed to take their arms and equipments along, which will be delivered to the Governor of the State, and reissued to the same men when they re-enlist in their former regiments. Officers now going out of service may re-enlist with the same rank in their regiments, the nuical designation of which will be preserved. These arrangements are highly judicious, because they are adapted to maintain the identity and prestige of organizations. And, over and above all, the State Government gives a bounty of $75 to all persons re-enlisting. At no time since the war broke out have the premiums awarded by the General and State Government soon be a large number of trained soldiers at soon be a large number of trained soldiers at leisure in every city, town and village, who, after a week or two of peaceful dullness will begin to yearn for the excitement of war. To them, we feel assured, the Government will not have appealed in vain. But far more potent than all the premiums, would be a decisive victory. An encouraging piece of good fortune would bring thousands of old soldiers, and new ones, too, into the field.

Mosby Gets Whipped and Retreats!

NEW YORK, May 20. Carrsville letters of the 15th and 16th, to to Herald, state that our forces have had two or three brisk fights with rebels in that vi-cinity, and the tearing up of the railroad track was progressing.

Wardrap's brigade of mounted rifles have arrived there to reinforce our troops.

A drafted regiment from Pennsylvania broke and fled on the first fire of the rebels on the night of the 15th. The enemy were concentrating, and another heavy attack expected, but our troops were ready for all emergencies. NEW YORK, May 20.

A Tribune's despatch states that the Government is disposed to credit the report that the rebels have evacuated Vicksburg.

Mosby, with a few men, turned up near Cole's Store on Sunday, got whipped and retreated towards White Plains.

NEW YORK, May 20. The Tribune's despatch says that the Secretary of War has within three or four days declared several times what he had concluded on the question of law is justly valued; nor is there any evidence that the President, who has heretofore considered the clause binding upon the Secretary, concurs in the latter's view that its enforcement is optional with him.

upon to lay their opinions in writing before the President.
It is understood that the views of the Attorney General are diametrically opposed to those entertained by the Secretary of War, and that he holds that the law obliges the Secre ry to fix a sum, by the payment of whi properly and appointed persons the drafted man may discharge himself. The eventual determination of the Government under these circumstances is of course a

A new projectile was found in the woods near Chancellorsville, composed of gutta percha and iron, about the size of a grape-shot. They are as hard and solid as iron, and will break a bone and pass through a body as surely as a metallic ball. The rebels, evidently, are being hard pressed for ammunition. A Washington despatch to the New York Evening Post runs thus: "Differences of opin-ions between high officials as to the conduct of Gen. Hooker and the affair of the Peterhof are said to prevail to such an extent as to interrupt the previous entente cordiale. It is believed by many that some important civi and military changes are about to take place which will be received with great satisfaction by the friends of the Government." Under the conscript law, the Provost Marshals are enjoined to arrest and deliver to the United States Marshal any person resisting the draft, or counselling or aiding resistance to the draft, or counselling any drafted person to conceal himself, or in any way disobey or dissuade from obedience to the law. On conviction, persons so arrested are to be fined five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both. Polish women have always been gifted with a certain dash of military spirit; and they are manifesting it now. There are many women in the insurgent camp taking part in the war.

Many families, who had sought refuge in Gallizia at the outbreak of the troubles, have returned to Poland and joined the insurgents.

One whole family is cited; the father, mother, son, and two daughters, have all enlisted.
